1. BACKGROUND

Exclusive Leasing and Finance Private Limited (hereafter referred to as 'the ELFPL' / 'the Company') is a private limited company incorporated under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and is a Reserve Bank of India (RBI) registered Non-Systemically Important Non-Deposit Taking Non-Banking Financial Company ("NBFC-ND-NSI").

2. OBJECTIVE

The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, ELFPL encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. A Vigil (Whistle Blower) mechanism provides a channel to the employees and Directors to report to the management about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of conduct or legal or regulatory requirements incorrect or misrepresentation of any financial statements and reports, etc.

Anonymous Complaints: The Company encourages that complainant/ Whistle Blower disclose their name while submitting any complaint(s). The Company, may not investigate or take cognizance of complaint(s) which are ambiguous, unclear or provide inadequate information unless accompanied / substantiated with strong evidence and data. All complainant/ Whistle Blower must disclose his/her name and identity while making any allegation(s) and submitting any complaint(s).

3. SCOPE

- a. This Policy applies to Representatives of the Company including its directors and, employees permanent or temporary including employees working on fixed term contracts. The other stakeholders are expected to abide by the provisions of this policy in true letter and spirit.
- b. This Policy covers any Acts of Wrongdoing, Violations or Breaches, as defined herein below and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and is formally reported by Whistle Blower(s). The Policy protects directors and employees wishing to raise a concern about serious irregularities within the Company. This Policy intends to cover serious concerns that could have grave impact on the operations and performance of the business of the Company and malpractices and events which have taken place / suspected to have taken place involving:
 - Breach of the Company's Code of Conduct
 - Breach of Business Integrity and Ethics
 - Breach of terms and conditions of employment and rules thereof
 - Intentional Financial irregularities, including fraud, or suspected fraud
 - Violation of any law or regulations, policies including but not limited to corruption, bribery, theft, fraud, coercion and willful omission
 - Gross or Willful Negligence causing substantial and specific danger to health, safety and environment
 - Manipulation of company data/records

- Proliferation of confidential/propriety information
- Gross Wastage/misappropriation of Company funds/assets
- An abuse of authority or fraud

The above list is illustrative and should not be considered as exhaustive. The policy neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work, nor is it a route for taking up a grievance about a personal situation.

4. WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

- a. The Company shall be committed to the integrity and fairness of its own and its employees. This is relied upon by Company's Shareholders, the Financial Markets and other Stakeholders. The Company, therefore, has a duty to ensure that there is an adequate mechanism to address any complaint related to questionable practices, internal controls, auditing matters, or the reporting of all information to the shareholders, the government or the financial markets.
- b. Accordingly, this Whistle blower Policy ("the Policy") has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for employees of the Company to approach the HR

- Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Head - Human Capital
- Head - Employee Relations
- Immediate Supervisor
- Chief Compliance Officer (CCO)/ Head-Legal
- Head- Internal Audit

Report Information

To facilitate the reporting process, the Whistle Blower should provide the necessary information specified in the form as per Annexure 1. The Protected Disclosure should provide the names of the Subject and contain specific details and factual information to support the Act(s) of Wrongdoing, Violations or Breaches. Although the Whistle Blower is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, at the minimum, some facts and evidence in support of the concerns should be provided.

In case the Protected Disclosure is communicated in electronic mode, the same should be forwarded with the subject as “Protected disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy”.

The Company will undertake to treat the Protected Disclosure sensitively and will do its best to protect the identity of the Whistle Blower. However, the Company cannot provide any categorical assurances on confidentiality since circumstances may be such that the identity of the Whistle Blower becomes apparent during an investigation or may need to be disclosed in a regulatory proceeding.

7. INVESTIGATION PROCESS

- a. For alleged misconduct by any Representative other than the CEO or any Board member
 - i. Promptly upon receipt of a whistle-blowing report, the person receiving the Protected Disclosure should report the incident to the Head of Human Capital who will inform to the CEO and CCO about the same. The Head of Human Capital, CEO and CCO shall assess the severity of the alleged Act(s) of Wrongdoing/Violations or Breaches.
 - ii. If the Protected Disclosure warrants further investigation, the CEO will advise CCO to convene an Inquiry Committee comprising of Fraud Control Unit, Human Capital and internal audit as deemed appropriate.
 - iii. Once the Inquiry Committee is convened, it shall perform a preliminary assessment on the Protected Disclosure whether ELFPL has a duty to make a report to any regulatory or enforcement authority under any law or regulation. If so, the Inquiry Committee shall notify the CEO, CCO & Head of Human Capital and make the said report as soon as practicable.
 - iv. The Inquiry Committee may then conduct further investigations to make a finding as to whether the Subject has committed the alleged misconduct. The investigation shall be document-based and the Subject will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
 - v. Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the Investigator or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation sought does not merely require them to admit guilt and Subjects have the right to avail protections available to them under the applicable laws.
 - vi. Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Investigator / Investigators and / or the Whistle Blower. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings. However, if the allegations against the Subject are not sustainable, then the Company may see reason to reimburse such costs.
 - vii. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No

- allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- viii. The investigation shall be completed normally within reasonable time of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure.

Once an investigation process is complete, report of the Investigator shall be placed at Board meeting for review. The Board may suggest suitable action against the Subject, as it deems necessary. Provided further that if any of the members of the Board have a conflict of interest in a given case, they should recuse themselves and the others on the committee would deal with the matter on hand.

b. For alleged misconduct by the CEO or Head - Human Capital or CCO or any Board Director

In the case where the Act of Wrongdoing/Breaches or Violation involves the CEO or Head - Human Capital or CCO or any Director of the Board, the Reporting Authority shall be the ELFPL's Chairman (if he is not the subject matter of the complaint). If the Chairman determines that the report warrants further investigation, he will convene an Inquiry Committee comprising of independent persons that may include other Directors of the Board, internal and external auditors or consultants as may be appropriate. The process of investigation in this regard will be determined accordingly as the circumstances may govern in this regard.

The whistle blowing that are in the nature of customer grievances would be dealt in the manner similar to handling customer grievances and would not be subjected to the requirements of this Whistle Blowing Policy.

c. Handling of Anonymous Protected Disclosure

Information or Protected Disclosure from an anonymous Whistleblower is generally not encouraged to prevent misuse of this Policy. Anonymous Protected Disclosure will be handled as follows:

- (i) Against staff two levels below the CEO, the Head of Human Capital and CCO will decide whether to investigate or disregard it.
- (ii) Against staff one level below the CEO, the matter must be brought to the attention of CEO. The CEO in consultation with the Board will decide on further investigation or otherwise.
- (iii) If the Protected Disclosure is against the CEO or a Board Member, the matter must be brought to the attention of the ELFPL's Chairman who will decide on the appropriate course of action.
- (iv) If a Protected Disclosure is received by any executive of the Company, other than the concerned authorities, the same should be forwarded to the CEO of the Company for further appropriate action.

The investigation process shall be as stipulated in Para a of this Policy. The form provided in Annexure 1 has to be completed as a matter of record.

8. NON-RETALIATION & ABUSE OF POLICY

Whistleblowers shall be protected from any disciplinary or retaliatory action from the Company, regardless of the final outcome/action arising from the report. Appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against Subjects who retaliate against any Whistleblower. Whistle Blowers raising a concern or issue should ensure to restrain from reporting frivolous, groundless or issues in bad faith that shall result in abuse of this Policy and procedure provided thereunder and appropriate disciplinary action may be initiated against Whistle Blowers making such malicious complaints as per the provisions of the Companies Act and Rules thereof.

In addition, reporting a concern does not automatically provide immunity to the Whistle Blower, if the person is himself/herself a party to the offense.

9. PROCEDURE FOR WHISTLE-BLOWING

The Policy should be published on the Company's website – www.ezcapital.in. The Whistle Blower or Reporting Authority receiving the information is to file a Protected Disclosure as per Annexure 1 and submit to the appropriate Reporting Authority as stipulated in Para 3.4 of this Policy.
